“The Friends of the Falconer Museum” was formed in 1995 to support the activities of the Museum. The Friends work closely with the Museum staff to support the activities of the Museum, promote local heritage, and organise events and exhibitions for the community.

Friends can be involved at any level they wish – from attending Museum events, to volunteering their time maintaining the collection and facilities, to organising activities and exhibits.

Benefits of Friends Membership

- Contributing to the preservation of Moray’s heritage
- Invitations to talks and trips organized by the Friends
- Training opportunities in Museum science skills such as archiving, documentation and research
- Meeting others interested in history and local heritage
- Up close and personal contact with the Falconer Museum’s fascinating collection
- 15% discount at the Falconer Museum Shop
